• Get help: To get help and more, touch  .

Apps from the web
You can get apps from other online app stores using your browser.
Tip: Choose your apps and updates carefully, as some may impact your phone’s performance—see “Choose carefully”.

Note: When installing an app, make sure you read the alerts that tell you what information the app will access. If you don’t want the app to access this information, cancel the installation.

To let your phone install apps that are not on Google Play, touch Apps > Settings > Security and check Unknown sources.

For information about downloading files from your browser, see “Downloads”.

Choose carefully
Apps are great. There’s something for everyone. Play, communicate, work, or have fun. But remember, choose your apps carefully. Here are a few tips:

• To help prevent spyware, phishing, or viruses from affecting your phone or privacy, use apps from trusted sites, like Google Play Store.

• In Google Play Store, check the app’s ratings and comments before installing.

• If you doubt the safety of an app, don’t install it.

• Like all apps, downloaded apps will use up memory, data, battery, and processing power—some more than others. For example, a simple battery level widget will use less than a streaming music player app. After installing an app, if you’re not happy with how much memory, data, battery or processing power it’s using, uninstall it. You can always install it again later.

• Just like web browsing, you may want to monitor children’s access to apps to help prevent exposure to inappropriate content.

• Certain apps may not provide completely accurate information. Take care, especially when it comes to personal health.

Take care of your apps
From your home screen touch Apps ( ), then swipe left to scroll through apps. To close the apps screen, touch Home or Back .

Disable removes the app from your menu—to Enable it, reopen this window and touch Enable (disabled apps are at the bottom of the list).

If an app locks up your phone as soon as you turn it on, restart in Safe Mode: Turn off your phone, then turn it back on—when you see the “Motorola” logo during power-up, press and hold both volume keys until you see the home screen, with Safe Mode in the lower left. Then, try removing the app.

• Reinstall apps: To reinstall apps from Google Play Store, touch Apps ( ) > Play Store, then touch ( ) > My apps. The apps you downloaded are listed and available for download.
• See or clear app details: Touch Apps ☰️ → 📱 Settings → Apps. A bar at the bottom tells you how much app storage space you have left. Swipe left or right to see the list of DOWNLOADED, RUNNING, or ALL apps, then touch an app in the list to see its details and storage usage. You can touch Clear data, Clear cache, or other options.

Tip: To quickly show app details, touch Apps ☰️, touch and hold an app, then drag it to App info.

• See app data usage: To see which apps are using the most data, touch Apps ☰️ → 📱 Settings → Data usage. For more, see “Data use”.

Update your phone
Use your phone or computer to check, download, and install phone software updates:

• Using your phone:
  If your phone notifies you about an update, follow the instructions to download and install it.

  To manually check for updates, touch Apps ☰️ → 📱 Settings → About phone → System updates.

  Your phone downloads updates over your Wi-Fi connection (if available) or mobile network. We recommend that you download updates over a Wi-Fi connection. Remember, these updates can be quite large (25MB or more) and may not be available in all countries. If the mobile network updates are not available in your country, update using a computer.

  On your computer, go to www.motorola.com/update.

Why do we yawn?

- KidsHealth

www.m.kidshealth.org/kid/talk/qa/yawn.html

Why do we yawn?

Nothing to do with boredom—we’re just cooling...

One is that when we are bored or tired, we just don’t breathe as deeply as we usually do. As this theory goes, our bodies take in less oxygen because our breathing has slowed. Therefore, yawning helps us bring more oxygen into the blood and move more carbon dioxide out of the blood.

May 12, 2014

A new study has suggested that the reason we yawn has nothing to do with tiredness.

Radio Frequency (RF) Energy
Exposure to RF Energy & Device Operation
Your mobile device contains a transmitter and receiver of RF energy. It is designed to comply with regulatory requirements concerning human RF exposure.

For optimal device performance, and to stay within the RF exposure guidelines:
- Hold your mobile phone normally at your ear when talking on it.
• When using the mobile phone next to your body (other than in your hand or against your head), maintain a distance of 1.5 cm (3/4 inch) from your body to be consistent with how the mobile phone is tested for compliance with RF exposure requirements.

• If you use your mobile phone with a non-Motorola accessory case or holder, make sure the accessory maintains the required separation distance and has no metallic parts.

World Health Organization (WHO) Advice
Organizations such as the World Health Organization and the US Food and Drug Administration have stated that if people are concerned and want to reduce their exposure they could use a handsfree device to keep the phone away from the head and body during phone calls, or reduce the amount of time spent on the phone.

Note: Motorola includes this guidance as a precaution, per the requirements of the Government of India. The scientific consensus is that there are no known RF health effects from the use of mobile phones.

Follow Instructions to Avoid Interference Problems

Persons with a pacemaker or defibrillator should observe the following precautions:
• ALWAYS keep the mobile device more than 20 centimeters (8 inches) from the pacemaker or defibrillator when the mobile device is turned ON.
• Use the ear opposite the pacemaker or defibrillator to minimize the potential for interference.
• Turn OFF the mobile device immediately if you have any reason to suspect that interference is taking place.

In such cases, neither the product nor any damage resulting therefrom will be covered by warranty.

Important FCC information: You must not make or enable any changes to the product that will impact its FCC grant of equipment authorization. The FCC grant is based on the product’s emission, modulation, and transmission characteristics, including: power levels, operating frequencies and bandwidths, SAR levels, duty-cycle, transmission modes (e.g., CDMA, GSM), and intended method of using the product (e.g., how the product is held or used in proximity to the body). A change to any of these factors will invalidate the FCC grant. It is illegal to operate a transmitting product without a valid grant.

Location Services
Motorola mobile devices can provide information about their approximate location to applications, using sources including GPS, AGPS, and Wi-Fi. GPS (Global Positioning System) uses government-operated satellites that are subject to changes implemented in accordance with Department of Defense policy and the Federal Radio Navigation Plan. These changes may affect the performance of location technology on your mobile device. AGPS (Assisted Global Positioning System) uses your wireless service provider’s network to improve GPS performance. Airtime, data fees, and/or additional charges may apply in accordance with your service plan. Contact your wireless service provider for details. Your mobile device can also use Wi-Fi signals to determine your approximate location, using information from known and available Wi-Fi networks.

Mobile devices transmit location-based information when connected to a wireless network or when using other location technologies like GPS. If you use applications that require location-based information such as driving directions, your mobile device will provide location information to them. These applications may share location information with third parties, including your wireless service provider, applications providers, Motorola, and other third parties providing services.

Emergency
When you make an emergency call, the cellular network may activate the AGPS technology in your mobile device to tell the emergency responders your approximate location. AGPS has limitations and might not work in your area. Therefore:

- Always tell the emergency responder your location to the best of your ability;
- Remain on the phone for as long as the emergency responder instructs you.

Navigation
If your Motorola mobile device provides navigation features, note that mapping information, directions, and other navigational data may contain inaccurate or incomplete data. In some countries, complete information may not be available. Therefore, you should visually confirm directions, closures, traffic, and all other factors that may impact driving. Always obey posted road signs.
Privacy & Data Security
Motorola understands that privacy and data security are important to everyone. Because some features of your mobile device may affect your privacy or data security, please follow these recommendations to enhance protection of your information:

- Monitor access: Keep your mobile device with you and don’t leave it where others may have unmonitored access. Use your device’s security and lock features, where available.
- Keep software up to date: If Motorola or a software/application vendor releases a patch or software fix for your mobile device that updates the device’s security, install it as soon as possible.
- Secure Personal Information: Your mobile device can store personal information in various locations, including your SIM card, memory card, and phone memory. Be sure to remove or clear all personal information before you recycle, return, or give away your device. You can also backup your personal data to transfer to a new device.

Note: For information on how to backup or wipe data from your mobile device, go to www.motorola.com/support.

- Online accounts: Some mobile devices provide a Motorola online account. Go to your account for information on how to manage the account, and how to use security features such as remote wipe and device location (where available).
- Applications and updates: Choose your apps and updates carefully, and install from trusted sources only. Some apps can impact your mobile device’s performance and/or have access to private information including account details, call data, location details, and network resources.
- Wireless: For mobile devices with Wi-Fi features, only connect to trusted Wi-Fi networks. Also, when using your device as a hotspot (where available), use network security. These precautions will help prevent unauthorized access to your device.
- Location-based information: Mobile devices enabled with location based technologies such as GPS, AGPS or Wi-Fi, can transmit location-based information. See “Location Services” for more details.
- Other information your device may transmit: Your mobile device may also transmit testing and other diagnostic (including location-based) information, and other non-personal information to Motorola or other third party servers. This information is used to help improve products and services offered by Motorola.

If you have further questions about how using your mobile device may impact your privacy or data security, please contact Motorola at privacy@motorola.com, or contact your service provider.

Disposal & Recycling

Mobile Devices & Accessories
Please don’t dispose of mobile devices or electrical accessories (such as chargers, headphones, or batteries) with your household waste. Warning: Never dispose of batteries, either separately or within a mobile device, in a fire because they may explode. Mobile devices or electrical accessories should be disposed of in accordance with the national collection and recycling schemes operated by your local or regional authority. Or, you may return unwanted Motorola mobile devices and electrical accessories to any Motorola Approved Service Center in your region. For details on approved national recycling schemes and Motorola recycling activities, go to: www.motorola.com/recycling

Packaging & Product Guides
Product packaging and product guides should only be disposed of in accordance with national collection and recycling requirements. Please contact your regional authorities for more details.

Hearing Aid Compatibility in the US
In the US, specific hearing aid compatibility (HAC) performance ratings can help clarify how certain wireless phones and hearing aids may perform together. HAC compliant wireless phones are capable of working with hearing aids that have a minimal immunity rating of at least 2. The immunity rating indicates how susceptible a hearing aid is to picking up interference from a digital wireless phone. It can rate the performance of the hearing aid for either microphone and/or telecoil coupling. Some hearing aids are more immune than others to this interference noise, and phones also vary in the amount of interference they generate. The US performance rating system for HAC compliant wireless phones is as follows:

- The “M” (microphone) indicates that the product has been tested and rated for acoustic coupling. The “T” (telecoil) represents that the product has been tested and rated for inductive coupling. The higher the “M” or “T” rating, the less likely the hearing aid user will experience interference when the hearing aid is set to the respective microphone or telecoil mode. The highest values to date are 3 and 4 (e.g., “M4” or “M3/T3”).

To determine if a product is rated for HAC, please look for the HAC rating logo on the phone’s packaging. For a list of current HAC models, visit www.motorola.com/hacphones.

Results will vary depending on the user’s hearing aid and hearing loss. If your hearing aid happens to be vulnerable to interference, you may not be able to use a rated phone successfully. Trying out the phone with your hearing device is the best way to evaluate it for your personal needs. To couple the device to your telecoil equipped hearing aid, switch your hearing aid to the “T” or telecoil setting. Then, enable the “Hearing Aid” mode feature on your Motorola phone with the following sequence: Apps > Phone > Menu > Settings > Hearing aids.

Motorola Mobility hearing aid compatible phones have been tested and rated for use with hearing aids for some of the wireless technologies that it uses. However, there may be some newer wireless technologies used in this phone that have not been tested yet for use with hearing aids. It is important to try to the different features of this phone thoroughly and in different locations, using your hearing aid or cochlear implant, to determine if you hear any interfering noise. Contact your service provider or Motorola for information on hearing aid compatibility. If you have questions about return or exchange policies, contact your service provider or phone retailer.
